

HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

*This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information. Please read carefully. ****

At Daly City Oral Surgery, we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, give you this notice, and follow the terms of this notice.

1. The law permits us to use or disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment. For example, a review of your file by a specialist doctor whom we may involve in your care.
2. We may use or disclose your health information for payment of your services. For example, we may send a report of your progress to your insurance carrier.
3. We may use or disclose your health information for our normal healthcare operation. For example, one of our staff will enter your information into our computer.
4. We may share your medical information with our business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business that requests them to protect your privacy.
5. We may use your information to contact you. For example, if you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine, voicemail, or with the person who answers the phone.
6. In an emergency, we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care.
7. We may release some or all your health information when required by law.
8. If this practice is sold, your property will become property of the new owner.
9. Except as described above, this practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization.
10. You may request in writing that we not use or disclose your health information as described above. We will let you know if we can fulfill your request.
11. You have right to know of any uses or disclosures we make with your health information beyond the above normal use.
12. As we will need to contact you from time to time, we will use whatever address or telephone number you prefer.
13. You have the right to transfer copies of your health information to another practice. We will mail your files for you. You have the right to see and receive a copy of your health information with a few exceptions. Give us written request regarding the information you want to see. If you want a copy of your record, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the copies.
14. You have the right to request an amendment or change to your health information. Give us your request to make changes. If you wish to include a statement in your files, please give it to us in writing. We may or may not make the changes you request, but will be happy to include your statement in your file. If we agree to an amendment or change, we will not remove or alter earlier documents, but will add new information.
15. You have a right to request a copy of this notice.
16. If we change any of the details of this notice, we will notify you of the changes in writing.
17. You may file a complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Ave. S.W., Room 509F, Washington, DC. 20201. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.
18. However, before filing a complaint, or for more information or assistance regarding your health information privacy, please contact our privacy officer at (650) 991-0999.
19. This notice went into effect as of January 1, 2023.
